

Contents

	page
Acknowledgements	iii
Introduction	1
Regional profiles	5
Northern Ireland – Scotland – North – North West – Wales – West Midlands – Yorkshire and Humberside – East Anglia – South West – East Midlands – South East
Chapter 1	19
The regional impact of recession and prospects for the 1980s
National economic problems of the UK – Regional employment to 1984 – Regional employment to 1990 – Population shifts – Regional policy problems in the 1980s
Chapter 2	30
An explanation of regional employment change
Processes of regional economic development – The manufacturing sector – Industry mix – The urban-rural shift – Regional policy – The service sector
Chapter 3	39
Employment problems in inner cities
Unemployment in the inner city – The decline of the inner city – Employment decline by sector – Causes of inner city decline – Why inner city decline matters – Will inner city problems worsen in the 1980s?
Chapter 4	50
Urban and regional policy for the 1980s
The current policy response to the regional problem – The current policy response to the urban problem – A critique of current regional and urban policy – Proposals for recasting regional and urban policies – Regional policy – Urban policy
Chapter 5	58
Policy coordination and the institutional framework
The need for improved coordination – The main features of the policy coordinating framework in the UK – Does the UK institutional framework give good results? – Ways to improve the institutional framework for policy coordination
Technical and Data Appendix	65
Regional model equations, historical data and projections
Select bibliography	81