

Editorial

This is the last issue of International Contributions to Labour Studies. Its publishers, the Cambridge Political Economy Society and the Higgins Labor Research Center, have decided that the kind of article that appeared in it would gain a wider readership in its sister journal, the Cambridge Journal of Economics. Any author who might have considered submitting an article to ICLS is encouraged to send it to the Managing Editor, the Cambridge Journal of Economics, Department of Applied Economics, Sidgwick Avenue, Cambridge CB3 9DE, UK.
